Hondo Air Base Observes Fifth Anniversary Date

By Ralph Cole
Two persons will be drafted from Medina County during the month of August, according to O. L. Moss, local representative to the Draft Board. Moss says he expects the quota to be filled with volunteers and has one boy signed up to be drafted.

James Moss will attend the fourth annual band clinic and twirling school at Southwest Texas State Teachers College in San Marcos next week. Each day will begin with band rehearsals, followed by theory classes and private lessons. Following a period set aside for recreation and swimming at the College park, an evening band rehearsal will end each clinic day.

Today, July 20, is the last day to file application for gasoline tax refund. It is also the last day to sign a Soil Bank agreement form, which can be secured in the County ASC Office in Hondo.

Fred Breiten, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Breiten has a cat. Now the interesting part about this cat is that its name is Hep. So, for all you cool cats, his name is really Hep Cat.

The largest birthday cake ever baked in Hondo will be unveiled today and tomorrow at the Hondo Locker and Food Market. It's for the tenth anniversary celebration at the store and prizes will be given. A ferris wheel will be available for the children — free. Milk will also be served during the sale.

Hondo Air Base's swimming team tied for second place at a recent swimming meet at Ellington Air Force Base, Houston. Ellington won first place.

Short run-downs on political candidates appear in this issue of the Anvil Herald. It should make some interesting reading and comments. The Democratic primary comes up next Saturday, July 28, so it is time to really decide who you are going to vote for.

A new correspondent, Don Lawrence, from Devine, has joined the Anvil Herald staff. Devine has not had a correspondent for some time now so we are looking forward to carrying more of their news in the paper.

A new highway patrolman, John Christy, has joined the local force. He comes to Hondo from Seguin and is now living on Ave. E.

The annual statistical report for the 1954-55 school year shows that the average annual current expenditure per pupil for the Hondo Independent District was $216.71. The state average for the same year for schools in Group VI, 500 to 999 in average daily attendance, was $264.42, or $47.71 per pupil more than was spent in the Hondo ISD.

Since Hondo had an average daily attendance of 906 for 1954-55, this makes a total of $43,225.26 less spent on the number of pupils than by the average school of the same size. This information was released by the Texas Education Agency.

School patrons who will have pupils riding the Hondo school busses for the first time this year should notify H. R. Burch at their earliest opportunity.

DEVINE GOC GROWS
Devine now has an Aircraft Flash and Ground Observer Corps — membership totals 14. These men, all private citizens of Devine, are volunteer sky watchers who are on duty at all times for unusual weather happenings and unidentified aircraft.

At Football Stadium
Sahawe Indians Dance In Hondo Saturday

The Sahawe Indians will visit Hondo for the second time in as many years when they display their talents at the Hondo football stadium Saturday night.

Last July, they put on their interpretive Indian dances at the Baseball park. The show is sponsored by the Hondo Business and Professional Womens Club and is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. July 21.

The boys are not real Indians — they are Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts from several Scout Troops and Post 181 in Uvalde. They have made an extensive study of Indian customs and dances.

Organized in 1950, they put in many long hours of dance practice. They have traveled throughout Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona.

Their show, according to Elsie Stanga, B&PW president, consists of a series of authentic Indian dances of various tribes. They have colorful costumes, all hand made.

Admission is 25 cents for students and $1 for adults and may be purchased from any B&PW member or at the gate.

Wildcats Spudded In Field

By Dick Tatum

A 1,000-foot test wildcat has been spudded on the Katie Harmon land in the Taylor-Ina field. Located seven miles south of Hondo on a 313-acre lease, this well is being drilled by James E. Mills of San Antonio.

Other new Taylor-Ina field locations that will be staked are five by Flato and Bates of Corpus Christi.

They are staking two on O. B. Burrell's land, 10 miles S. E. Hondo on a 99.1-acre lease in the Durst Survey No. 16. Both will be 1,800-foot test efforts.

H. D. Carl will have a 1,800-foot test well on his land, 12 miles S. E. Hondo on a 640-acre lease by Flato and Bates.

The same operators have located two wells on O. Leinweber's land, 10 miles S. E. Hondo on an 18-acre lease, also in the Durst Survey No. 16. The last three mentioned are slated to be 1,800-foot tests.

One duster and one oiler was reported for Medina County last week.

One and a half bbls. daily of gravity 17 oil is what Harry W. Helwig is getting from his 460-foot well on the George E. Railroad.

Located two miles S. E. Noonan in the Campbell Survey No. 447, the well is getting production from the Navarro sand. In the Taylor-Ina field, the No. 8 Kurt Scharf was named a dry hole after Wherry and Green drilled it to 930-feet. The same operators report abandoning location on the No. 18 Kurt Scharf. Both wells are eight miles south of Hondo in the Moebius Survey.

Conservation News

Rootplowing Is Up

Rootplowing in the Medina Valley Soil Conservation District is fast becoming one of the major conservation practices. This practice is new in the district, the first being done in 1955 on the Lawrence Rothe farm north of D'Hanis.

Farmers and ranchers were slow at first to except this practice due to the expense and drought conditions in the district. The question in everyone's mind at that time was, "Would this practice pay off in low rainfall years?"

This question was soon answered on the Rothe farm. With less than seven inches of rain, a good growth of both native and introduced grasses was established.

Besides killing out all the brush, the rangeland is left open to take up all the rain that falls, instead of allowing it to runoff. This is one of the reasons rootplowing is paying off. Remember it isn't necessarily how much rainfall you get that counts but, how much you are able to hold on your rangeland to be used by the grass.

Even in low rainfall years rootplowed range will give you good grazing where untreated rangeland will give little if any grazing. Of course, we all know that the success on any rangeland requires management. Unless we manage our rangeland we cannot expect good results out of any practices.

The following farmers and ranchers have or will rootplow acreage on their farms and ranches during the 1956 year:

T. W. Wheeler, 600 acres; George Ilse, 80 acres; Edgar Saathoff, 30 acres; Charlie Monkhouse, 50 acres; Bill Nester, 200 acres; A. J. Hardt, 100 acres; Calvin Hardt, 40 acres; Lawrence Rothe, 100 acres; Oscar Karm, 50 acres; Roy Dailey, 50 acres; James A. Cameron, 40 acres; Wallace and Leroy Haby, 100 acres; and Anthony Zerr, 40 acres.

Funeral services were held at 4 p.m. Monday for Mrs. Maggie Hattox, Devine. Mrs. Hattox died Sunday at 7 p.m. at the age of 83.

Services were held at the First Baptist Church, Devine, with the Rev. Don Rose officiating. Interment was also in Devine.

Born in Gonzales in 1870, she moved to Hondo in 1880 and later to Devine, where she had lived since. She joined the Baptist church when she was 16 years old and served as organist for several years.

She is survived by one brother, Elton Smith, and one son, H. P. Hattox. She has also raised three other children.

Early Votes Going Slow In County

Air Base Serves As Primary Pilot School

Turning out well-trained pilots is the job assigned to Texas Aviation Industries — and, the job is apparently taken care of. When Hondo Air Base received their new contract this year, Gen. G. P. Dissoy said, in a telegram to Walter Gunstream, vice-president and general manager, "I was very pleased to learn that your negotiation with AMC resulted in the awarding of a contract to continue operation of HAB during the coming year. The performance of your company during the past several years, has met the highest expectations of the Air Force."

Hondo is one of nine contract schools. The government supplies materiel, including aircraft.

The air base was officially reactivated June 1951, with a small complement of military personnel and seven employees for TAI.

Today, the air base has 550 military personnel, both student and regular Air Force officers, and 750 civilian employees.

John D. Cape, former vice-president of TAI was instrumental in helping get Hondo Air Base reactivated.

This issue of the Herald is dedicated to those personnel at Hondo Air Base, who work so hard to bring better pilots to the Air Force. Without the help of all concerned, Hondo would not be able to receive the recognition it now does.

Hondo Air Base has brought power and prestige to the city of Hondo and the town is fully backing it up.

With 136 flight instructors, 104 T-28s and 47 T-34s, each cadet receives enough flying time and teaching to qualify him as a pilot in the US Air Force. Each cadet flies on the average of one hour each day, or seven hours each week. Three hours per day is the maximum flying time any one cadet may turn in. Five to eight hours of training is given in the T-28 and eight to twelve hours in the T-34 before the cadet is allowed to solo. Those not qualifying for solo flight, are eliminated from the program.

With pride, we say thanks to you, Hondo Air Base, and congratulations on your birthday.

Mrs. Faseler Returns From Trip

By Mrs. Harrison Wilson

Mrs. L. F. Faseler came in Tuesday after a three week's tour that took her to Canada. She went with her children, M&M Charles Wegner of Austin, and Charles' parents, M&M Rudolph Wegner of Karnes City.

The party left Austin June 23 and went through Raton Pass, Colorado Springs, went up on Pikes Peak and spent two days in Yellowstone National Park. They visited Mrs. Faseler's nephew, Jimmie Duderstadt in Montana, then went on into Canada.

Mrs. Faseler says they crossed the half way line between the equator and North Pole. They visited in Alberta, Canada, then back to Glacier Park and saw ripe cherries in Idaho.

In Salt Lake City, they took a guided tour of the Mormon Tabernacle and grounds, then on to the Painted Desert, Petrified Forest and Grand Canyon, then home.

Mrs. Faseler says they saw green, beautiful country and lakes all the way up and back, but the most beautiful lake of all was the one she saw in Anton Hardt's field when she got home.

M&M Fred Allen Jr. and family of Campbellton spent July 4 with the A. T. Wiemers.

M&M Fielding Wiemers and boys returned Thursday after spending the week in Corpus and Port Lavaca.

The Lucian Wards are a pretty happy family this week. Gordon and Calvin are home with discharges from the Army.

Beth and Phyllis Wilson returned Friday after a three week's vacation in Comfort and Alice. They spent a week in Comfort with their grand parents, the Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Lorfing and Mickey and two weeks in Alice with M&M J. T. Cozart and Ruthie.

The Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Lorfing and Mickey spent Tuesday and Wednesday with the Roy Wilsons.

Sunday guests of M&M S. P.

Childress were Mrs. Norman Gray of Cotulla, Mrs. W. B. Melton, Mrs. E. E. Wilson, M&M Coy Berry and family, Mrs. Tom Gilliam of Pearsall, Mrs. Edna Seaney and grandson, Lynn Rice, of Wellstone, Mass., and M&M Polk Childress, who arrived Thursday and left Monday.

M&M Harry Meadows and family spent the weekend with Mrs. L. F. Faseler.

Miss Dora Mae Wilson returned Friday, after spending 10 days in Connecticut and New York with her sister, Mrs. L. F. McCollum. She, like Mrs. Faseler, saw some beautiful country and lakes on her trip, but she thinks the one in Dan McCrea's field was the prettiest one she saw.

Mrs. E. E. Wilson spent several days last week with her sister in Dallas, Mrs. Ralph Rackley.

Mrs. Wayman McAnelly and boys of San Antonio spent Friday to Sunday with the E. T. Wiemers.

Mrs. Anna Wiemers is in a Houston hospital for surgery. We hope she is well and home soon.

Plane Maintenance Calls For Experience

Airplanes do not always stay in tip-top maintenance. This is where Leo Kilmer, supervisor of maintenance at Hondo Air Base, comes in.

Kilmer, with his crew of 240 men, not including men on gas-ing-up operations, service all of the 104 T-28s and 47 T-34s at Hondo. And, this is a big job. Approximately 30 airplanes a week are run through the maintenance section, besides all other mechanic jobs. Anything from replacing a wing section to painting an airplane is conducted in Kilmer's shop.

Three hangers make up the maintenance section—Hanger One is for the major repairs and radio maintenance, Hanger Two is for minor repairs and Hanger Three is for T-34s.

With approximately 5,000 pieces of radio equipment on Hondo

Air Base, radio maintenance not come easy. More than 15-18,000 different items are repaired each by 10 full-time employees.

Kilmer says he keeps a complete stock of parts in his 15-18,000 different items in the stocking room. Accidents are repaired in these shops the airplanes are salvaged damaged beyond repair. parts are manufactured shops.

A training program for mechanics is in progress at the base, but most of the men had experience before beginning work there.

A necessary part of the base system, the maintenance section manages to keep airplanes in the air, striving for 100 percent of the planes ready for flying at all times.

This announcement received today by Dr. J. W. Commissioner of Education as Educational Agency.

First quarter allocation money will be made to the month, according to J. Slaughter, chief, southwest distribution division, Dallas.

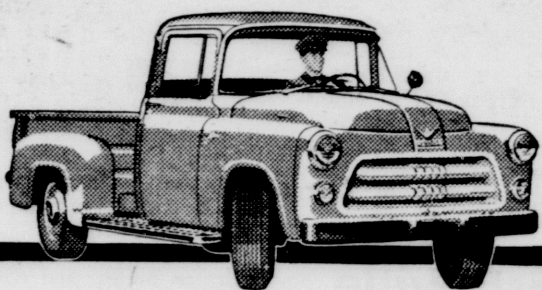

This office of the Agricultural Marketing Service deals states in this region on National School Lunch Program. Slaughter explained the per cent increase in the allotment was the result of increase of $16,700,000 of year's appropriation by Congress.

Don't Help Elect Joe Blow! Sure You Vote The 28th

By Jerry June Berger

Did you realize that casting your vote on Saturday, July 28 is the only chance that you will have to elect your state's governor, lieutenant governor and attorney general; our area's state representative in Congress and our district attorney?

That's right, because the outcome of the Democratic primary in Texas is almost the same as being elected. At the present time a Republican candidate for governor would not have a Chinaman's chance of being elected. The voters will choose the one they like best from the candidates listed on the Democratic ballot.

A total of 4,642 votes COULD be cast in Medina County, for that figure represents the number of poll receipts and exemptions issued for the current year.

We would like to see this county turn out a whooping vote on the 28th. All over the country, newspapers have expressed alarm at people seeming not to vote about elections and yet exercising one's right to vote is probably the most democratic thing about this country's democratic form of government.

This not-careism first shows up way back in 1901 when only half of those eligible to qualify as voters turned up at the tax office to pay their poll tax.

Then on election day apathy rears its ugly head when only a fraction of those people holding a poll tax or poll tax exemption go to the polls to express themselves.

Think of this when you are wondering whether it is too hot to get outside and go to the polls on Saturday: A man could be elected governor of Texas by a 1-vote majority. Let's call our mythical candidate Joe Blow. If Joe gets even one more vote than the other men running for the office, then he is automatically the man listed on the ballot in the November general election. He is elected, and immediately announces he's going to set up a board called "From the Moon To The Moon" board and persuades our legislators to appropriate money so that he can be the first to go to the moon and Texas would have something to brag about.

Sure, you say, that's kinda ridiculous. But so are many of the appropriations for which some of our elected officials manage to secure your tax money from you. And there's nothing to prevent him from asking for a state income tax law (we feel our area's one is too much) or a state sales tax (which "slices" you to pieces if you visit other states.)

So, don't you be responsible for electing Joe Blow. He hopes you won't vote so he can win by that slim margin. By casting your ballot, you help him come just an also ran.

QUOTES SOME MORE

AFTER JULY 4TH OBSERVATIONS

READ AND PONDER WELL

From Mrs. Velma Taylor's "Just Ramblin'" Column in The South Reporter, of Holly Springs, Miss., we quote the following timely comments:

Throughout our nation, our Declaration of Independence was celebrated Wednesday and as many as could have lengthened the holiday thru the weekend. Yet how many of us paused to think just what it was that we celebrated? Or of how much of that dearly won independence remains?

In our country today there are those who value our freedom and there are those who would surrender our independence. Compare the proposals of the two:

Endorsed by Senator Estes Kefauver, who seeks the Democratic Nomination for President of our land, here are 13 things which he and the rest of the Internationalists propose:

1. Strong immediate limitations of National Sovereignty.

2. International control of all armies, navies and materials of war.

3. Universal money, a democratically controlled international bank—whatever that means—with unlimited funds for the financing of backward countries.

4. Taxes levied by the World Government proportionately to the INCOME of member states.

5. Progressive elimination of all tariffs and trade restrictions.

6. The denial of the right of secession to member nations.

7. WORLD-WIDE FREEDOM OF IMMIGRATION.

8. A world government of delegated powers.

9. An international legislative body, an International Court, with other national courts, acting under authority of the International Court, with power to carry out the edicts of the International Court nationally over individuals.

10. An international police, whose national units would police member states.

11. Individuals of member states to be bound by laws of World Government.

12. Application of Genocide member States, as well as the States.

13. Atomic energy and nuclear energy to be placed under a monopoly of the United Nations. Surely Kefauver will not win the Democratic nomination for president but, just as surely, through compromise we are gradually moving toward all of these. And only the voice of the people will stop it.

In direct antithesis to the above quoted tenets of internationalism are these proposals to govern our foreign relations:

1. Mobilize the strongest possible deterrents to war—military, psychological, political and economic.

2. Return to those traditional American policies which sustained us in the past, especially:

(a) The policies recommended by President George Washington in his Farewell address. (b) The Monroe Doctrine (c) The Open Door Policy as defined in the Nine Power Treaty of 1922.

3. Exterminate the Communist conspiracy in the United States.

4. Withdraw recognition from the Soviet Union and its satellites.

5. Employ all measures to sap the economic strength of the Communist World.

6. Scrupulously observe present military alliances (where such alliances are in truth honored by our contracting allies), and form new alliances only for the period of the emergency.

7. Extend military and economic aid only to cooperating allies.

These proposals are preceded by this statement: The independent sovereignty of the United States must forever remain the ultimate objective of American foreign policy. This objective can best be obtained in a peaceful community of free and sovereign nations, guided in their relationship by minimum standards of law and equity. To this end it is the hope of Americans that governments be constituted to derive their lawful powers from the consent of the governed, and that peoples everywhere enjoy the dignity and freedom which is their grant from the Almighty.

From reading all the might gather that we have thing against TV. Actually our only objection is that it broadens the hips and the vision. Once in a great we see something we think worth watching.

Following that KENS we drove on to Houston remainder of the week an office machine show progress.

There we saw the latest writers, which now are Easter Egg colors, adding tract and multiply but also quicker than you can say and minuted, and gisters which leave nothing for a bookkeeper at the end of the day.

One company now has operated left-handed adding machine, supposedly the first market. It looks kinda odd the total key and hand left the left side, but works the same as the regular.

That should be interesting for those folks who are growing up to be left-handed.

Generations vary as to should be done with the who starts out as a south One time we read that all say all kids should be to use their right hand, a few years later psychiatry out in protest that young who have been forcefully ed are becoming a bunch nervous wrecks. So there you are.

Anyway, we know of young lady who has turned left-handed business into a deal for herself. She is MUMME, daughter of the LEY MUMMES. It seems MRS. MUMME allows her older daughters to alternate the cooking job at their but when it is PATSY's turn potatoes are on the menu able to inveigle sister NANCY to doing the peeling because does not have a left-hand potato peeler!

PA Much of the excitement of weekly newspaper life occurs Friday morning when you hear a what article readers did not like.

Last week we ran a story cerning what a state insurance man gave as reasons for fire insurance going steady over previous months. Understand, we did not write the from thin air—the entire was based on facts issued the state insurance board.

One of the things the insurance spokesman said was that cents additional charge was made because the city did have a building law code. a city councilman made the mark that it seemed like Anvil Herald should not printed the story until the had time to do something about that.

We have to laugh at the cause for the past several years we have written at least a dozen editorials on why the city needs a zoning law and building code. But then perhaps several years is not long enough for them to do something about it!

We have no intention of ing, but since that remark directed at the Anvil Herald, feel we have a right to say the "charge" that we should keep the insurance rate a ret from the people who are ing higher rates.

Yes sir, this weekly newspaper business is a great life.

A Run-Down On Political Candidates

Each week, the Anvil Herald receives pages and pages of copy from ambitious candidates for office. Recently we have made a study of qualifications of men for the office they seek, and are recommending them to you when you mark your ballot next Saturday, July 28.

GOVERNOR—The chief administrative officer of Texas receives an annual salary of $25,000. Six men are seeking the post.

Our choice, Price Daniel, is a strong opponent of a general sales tax and a state income tax. A conservative, he promises to employ every legal means to allow local areas to work out the school segregation problem.

He opposes federal aid and federal control of our schools and says that increases in pay for teachers and better retirement benefits for them are musts. Tighter control against narcotic traffic is also a plank in his platform. He also supports: A highway improvement program, increased old age assistance, an improved state hospital program and a long-range water conservation program.

Other candidates for governor are: Ralph Yarborough, loyalist Democrat; W. Lee O'Daniel, master of showmanship; Reuben Senterfitt, a state representative; J. Everts Haley, a rancher-historian; and J. J. Holmes, whose platform includes legalizing pari-mutuel horse racing in the state.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—He receives no set salary but gets the same pay as state senators, $25 per day for the first 120 days of the regular biennial sessions and for special sessions, and receives the governor's salary when the latter is out of the state. He succeeds the governor if the governor dies, resigns or is removed.

State Senator A. M. Aikin, a veteran of 23 years in the Texas Legislature is the best qualified of the four candidates seeking the office. He has done more for the teaching profession in Texas than any man for the past decade. Co-author of the Gilmer-Aikin school improvement bill, this veteran legislator promises to continue to fight for better school facilities. He is emphatically for a strict lobby registration law so that the people of Texas will know who represent whom and for what.

Aikin has sponsored legislation on state hospitals, schools for the blind and deaf, special education for retarded children and a National Guard Armory board.

Also running for the office are: Ben Ramsey, who is seeking his fourth term in the office; C. T.

Johnson, who was an also ran last election; and Ex-Lt. Gov. John Lee Smith, who is seeking a return to the job.

ATTORNEY GENERAL—The state's lawyer gets a salary of $20,000. Four men are seeking the post being vacated by John Ben Shepperd, who is not a candidate for re-election.

Will Wilson has the qualifications to make a fine state official. He believes that the state's lawyer should be chosen by the voters as carefully as they would choose personal legal counsel. He has twice been an assistant attorney general, thereby familiarizing him with the position he seeks. He has also served two terms as district attorney of Dallas County and six years as an associate justice of the Supreme Court of Texas.

In his platform, he pledges to strengthen city and county governments wherever possible believing that to be the best way of stopping the present trend of government centralization.

Three other candidates are: Tom Moore, the McLennan County D. A.; Ross Carlton, who is running on a segregation platform; and Curtis E. Hill, who was a county attorney of Upshur County back in the '30s.

CONGRESSMAN AT LARGE—Texas has this position available because of the failure of the state legislature to redistrict the congressional districts after the 1950 federal census which gave Texas an additional member in the United States Congress. He receives the same salary and emoluments as district congressmen, $22,500.

Martin Dies, the incumbent, has a platform which favors strong national defense — militarily, economically and spiritually; co-operation with non-Communist nations; and the role of impartial umpire for the government in dealings with labor, industry and agriculture. He favors protection of states rights and reduction of unnecessary government expenditures.

One other man, Bill Elkins, 38, of Dallas, is also seeking the post.

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE, SUPREME COURT, PLACE 3—The Texas Supreme Court has a chief justice and eight associate justices and the positions pay $17,500 annually.

James R. Norvell of San Antonio, who is now associate justice of the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals is a good choice for the position. He has said, "I would hope to maintain order rather than confusion, be temperate in expression, yet just in decision."

Other candidate for the post is Robert G. Hughes of Tom Green County.

STATE TREASURER—$17,500 goes to the man elected to keep the state's financial statistics.

Warren C. Harding, 35-year-old treasurer of Dallas County, is running on a platform of "economy, efficiency, honesty and integrity."

We feel that one man has been state treasurer long enough and that Harding should be elected. Incumbent Jesse James has held the post for 14 years.

COMMISSIONER GENERAL LAND OFFICE—This $17,500 per year man administers the controversial veterans' land program.

Earl Rudder is seeking his first elective term in the office, having been appointed by Gov. Allan Shivers in 1955 after Bascom Giles refused to qualify for the two-year term. He promises to concentrate on restoring confidence in the Veterans Land Program.

His only opponent is Ned Price, a County Judge in Smith County.

COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE—Head of the Texas Department of Agriculture is a man who draws $15,000 for the position.

John C. White, seeking re-election to the post, says that his program has increased services to farmers and industry by more than 400 per cent.

Only 31, White has done a fine job of keeping the public informed as to his department's activities and his was the only state agency which did not ask for an increased amount of tax money from the state revenue fund during the last legislative session.

His two opponents are Bill Jones of Kermit and Jim Barber, one time employee in that office.

JUDGE, COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS—Judges of the state's highest tribunal in criminal cases are paid $17,500.

W. A. Morrison was elected to the post in 1950 and has back of him a political career of 23 years. Previously, he has served as a district attorney and was also elected president of the District and County Attorneys Association of Texas.

His opposition, Jesse Owens, ran an unsuccessful campaign to be elected to the office held by Judge K. K. Woodley, in a previous election.

FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE—There are four candidates. Serving an area covering Dimmit, Medina, Uvalde and Zavala counties, this position pays $25 a day while the legislature is in session, for the first 120 days, or $3,000. This covers a two year period, but special sessions can also be paid at the same rate each day. Dolph Briscoe Jr. has decided not to run again, and this brought out a larger number of candidates than usual.

Jack Richardson of Uvalde county, a well known rancher, is our choice among the men who have announced for this position. We feel that representation by a man who knows the ranchers problems is essential for this area. Fred P. Turner, a young lawyer from Uvalde, H. O. Niemeyer, rancher and businessman from Knippa, and J. W. Flanagan, of Crystal City are also running. Flanagan, we understand, is enrolled in the University of Texas.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY—The race covers Real, Uvalde, Medina and Zavala counties. The annual salary is $7,500 for the attorney, who must represent the people against criminals or those accused of crime. The office is important, and must be handled by an experienced lawyer who will do his best to protect the citizens against wrongdoing of all types.

We believe that Francis Richter of Medina county is best qualified for this position, and we feel that he should have a full term of office to give him a complete opportunity to show what he can do. He was appointed by the governor recently to fill out the term vacated when Jim Weatherly was named as a judge. There are a number of very important and serious cases on hand to be tried, and we think that Mr. Richter should prosecute them. His opponent is R. S. Crawford Jr., of Crystal City.

REFERENDUM—Three questions will appear on the ballot, which are in the nature of asking the voters what they think about the question. They do not legally force the state to do anything about the matters, and have no true significance, as far as we have been able to learn. However, it will be a help to the state government to know what people really think about sending white and colored children to school together, inter-racial marriages, or the states rights question.

The wording as it appears on the ballot is a little bit confusing, but Robert Cargill, Chairman of the Texas Referendum Committee, said that Texans who oppose mixed schools, mixed marriages, and illegal Federal interference should vote "FOR" all three propositions on the July 28th referendum.

Lions Hear Report From Convention

Edgar Stiegler, Lions Club president, has just returned from the National Convention of Lions International at Miami, Florida.

Stiegler says thousands of Lions, 30-40,000 were on hand for the occasion. Texas Lions entered Miami with a bang — most of them carried pistols and fired blanks from them — while the Arkansas delegation wore bright red jackets.

Stiegler gave his report to the local Lions during their regular meeting yesterday.

Of Runway

Control Tower Acts As Brains

Hondo Air Base's runway brains come from two positions—the main control tower and the runway control tower.

G. A. Robinson and W. D. Smith operate the control tower workings in two shifts. The two shifts are from 7 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 12:30 to 6:30 p.m.

To operate the control tower, Smith says you have to be a licensed Civil Aeronautics Tower Operator. They are subject to spot checks at any time.

And at the same time, there is a tower officer with the operator at all times. The officer takes care of emergency procedure. An auxiliary power unit goes into operation in case the electricity goes off.

Standing 55 feet high, the tower is in direct control of the taxi lane and the ramp, where airplanes are parked. This is where the runway tower comes—it is operated by two instructors, with honors rotating among the instructors, which number approximately 136.

The runway tower clears take-offs and landings and provides for the safety of all aircraft in the pattern or on the runway. No aircraft lands or takes-off without permission from the runway tower.

In case of power failure between radios, the tower has different colored signals, meaning different things. A red flare, for example, would tell the pilot not to land.

Each time the runway control tower goes into operation, a fire engine and ambulance accompany it in case of an accident.

Each instructor will come up for duty in the runway tower about once each two months. Tours run for approximately five hours—two instructors in the morning and two different ones in the afternoon.

All of this goes on for the entire six months a student is in training.

He attended St. Mary's University in San Antonio one year before entering the University.

C. Thomas Bertsch

Tom Bertsch Handles Three Jobs At HAB

Some men are satisfied with only one job—but not C. Thomas Bertsch, personnel clerk, secretary and associate editor of the "Traffic Patter", monthly news publication of Texas Aviation Industries.

Born in Oregon, Bertsch moved to Texas at the age of 10. He then moved to Georgia, New York, back to Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho and then to Castroville, where he attended Moyer Military Institute.

Bertsch spent 14 years, going through 16 grades—he started school in Oregon, then moved to another town in the same state, where they put him in the second grade.

He married a Hondo girl, Tate, six months ago. His trip to Hondo was in 1953, blind date.

After graduating from school, he entered Mary's in San Antonio, where he was assistant public relations man for the school. He is a weekly columnist in one of the Antonio afternoon newspapers, member of the ROTC, and the rank of first lieutenant. He is now a member of the Artillery Reserves, with rank of second lieutenant.

Bertsch says he is a publisher of short stories—one of his favorites was "An Extra" published in St. Mary's life magazine. It also received honorable mention in a magazine contest.

His father holds a position in the U.S. Navy, in Washington, and has been in Alaska.

By Millie Eckhart
(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of recipes written by the people of this community.)

Born 53 years ago in Comfort, Mrs. Millie Eckhart has lived in Hondo proper for the past ten years.

Moving to a ranch north of Hondo at the age of five, Mrs. Eckhart attended school at Rothe—the schoolhouse is still there. Following her husband's death she decided she would have to go to work to support her children.

After trying various jobs, she became part owner in a local confectionary. She is a member of the B&PW Club and has served on the Health and Safety Committee of that organization, Chamber of Commerce and the Parent-Teacher Association. She is a former secretary in the PTA, and is Literature and Publication chairman in the Wesleyan Service Guild, a part of the Methodist church.

When asked where she learned to cook, Mrs. Eckhart said, "I've been cooking so long, I don't really remember."

Her recipe for Rum Cake was given to her many years ago by Mrs. Ethel Schugart, cook at the Woodward Ranch.

Rum Cake

1½ cups sugar
2½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening
2 cups flour
¾ cup milk

Beat these two minutes and then add two unbeaten eggs and ¼ cup milk. Then beat two more minutes and bake in loaf pan for 50 minutes at 325 degrees.

Just before the cake is done, boil together 1½ cups of sugar and ¾ cup water for five minutes. Remove from fire and add two tablespoons butter and one cup rum flavoring.

Pour over cake while still in pan and both are hot.

Clip this recipe out and try it—it may be good.

(All persons, male or female, having a favorite recipe, are invited to enter it at the Anvil Herald. Recipes chosen for publication will run with a personality sketch of the person writing the article.)

Soil Bank Forms Are Ready

Cotton, peanut and wheat farmers remember that July 20 is the final day to sign agreements to participate in the Soil Bank program.

Another reminder about getting your application forms for the Federal Gas Tax refund. This refund covers the gasoline purchased between Jan. 1 and June 30. These applications must be made before Oct. 1, 1956.

Next week, July 22-28, has been declared Farm Safety Week. Farm accidents are killing on the average of 40 farm residents each day and injuring one farm person about every half minute. Medical science has decreased natural death rates, but accidental deaths and injuries on our farms and in our homes are on the increase to the point where farming is now the third most hazardous occupation in our country. Safety practices must become habit forming in order to be effective. Farm Safety Week is a good time to start such habits. Certainly we do not want to be counted in the group involved in a preventable accident.

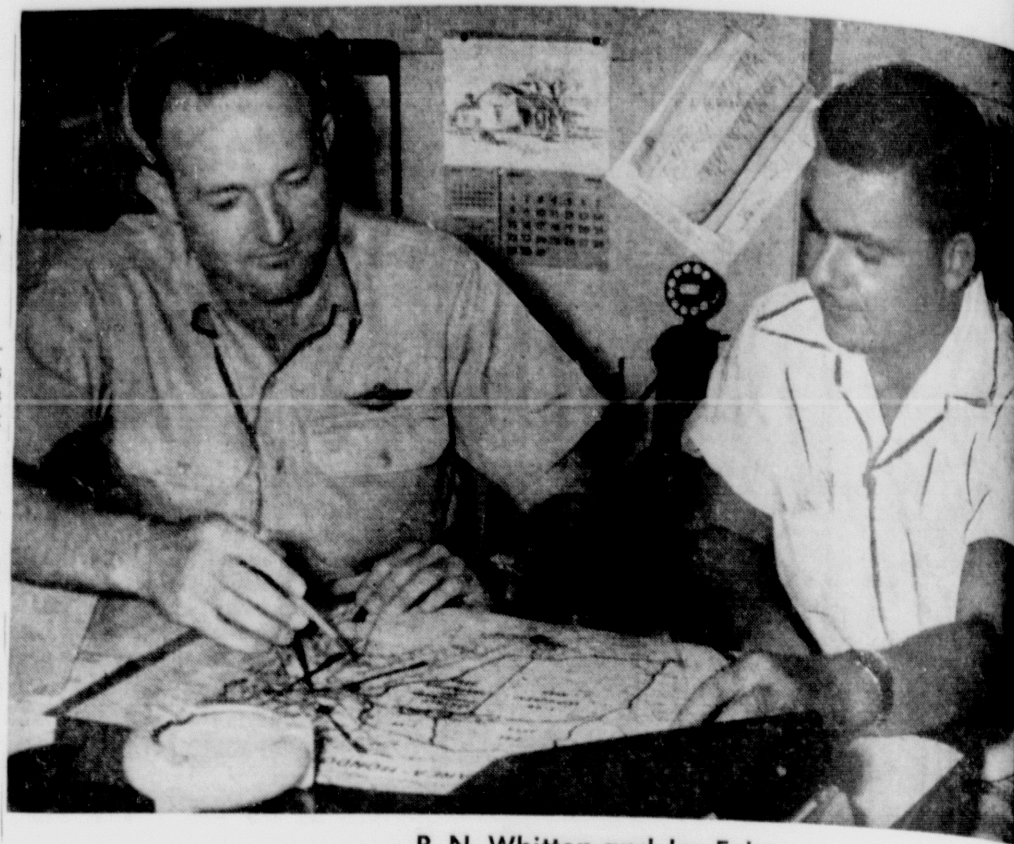

About this time of the year, numerous inquiries are received about shrubs that seem to be withering and burning of the foliage. Dr. Harlan E. Smith, Extension Plant Pathologist, reports that the following are some of the causes of such conditions: (1) drying wind, (2) high light intensity, (3) insufficient soil moisture, (4) excessive lime in the soil, (5) excessive commercial fertilizer, (6) baryard manure contaminated with strong fly sprays, (7) commercial gas injury, (8) fungus or other soil born infections.

R. N. Whitten and Joe Fohn

Director Flying-Training

Commutes 500 Miles Each Week

R. N. Whitten, Director of Flying Training at Hondo Air Base, commutes between Hondo and San Antonio each day, carrying out his part in the chain of command at the air base.

As Director of Flying-Training, Whitten supervises the entire flying training program conducted at Hondo Air Base.

Born and educated in Bishop, Tex., he drives approximately 500 miles each week, carrying out his duties at the air base. Joe Fohn, Hondo, chief flight dispatcher, works side-by-side with Whitten.

Together, these two men work out flying calendars and reports of training one month before a class arrives to begin their six months' stay in Hondo. Mrs. Dorothy Duncan, Hondo, is secretary in the office. Her husband is also employed at the base.

A veteran of World War II, Whitten is trained to fly the PT-13, BT-13, T-6, C-45, B-25, B-26, A-26 and jets, to name only a few. Altogether, he is trained in the flight of ten airplanes and served as a medium bomber pilot and instructor in the Flying-Training Command during the war.

Following the war, he purchased a farm and started in the field of agriculture. He also did some crop dusting but his yen to fly kept him after his career.

He came to Hondo in September, 1951, as a flight instructor for one year, after which he was promoted to a senior instructor.

Moving up the ladder fast, just eight months later, he became assistant flight commander, and six months after that, he was promoted to flight commander. Two years later, he received the position of flying safety supervisor, and six months later was promoted to his present position.

He first entered the Air Force as an aviation cadet, and received his pre-flight training in California. He then moved to advanced flying-training in Colorado.

Whitten is married and has three children — wife Margaret and children, Pamela Ann, 10; Marsha Beth, 8; and Donald Neal, 6.

He is a member of the Highland Hills Civic League, a San Antonio group promoting a better community, and the Highland Terrace Methodist Church. He attended Texas Tech for one year, majoring in agriculture.

It's a Great Time to Buy a Buick!

Switch the Pitch -
And you Zing like a Bird

You can do it only in a Buick.

Only with Variable Pitch Dynaflo* can you switch the pitch like an airplane pilot does. Only with Dynaflo can you get a safety-surge of extra power that's smooth as a soaring bird.

Only the newest version of Dynaflo gives completely smooth, swift acceleration — even at the first gas-saving inch of pedal pressure.

Trying is believing—this new 1956 Dynaflo is years ahead of any other transmission. And it's just one of the great new features that you're missing if you're still driving an older car.

So why wait for your present car to become another year older—and considerably less valuable as trade-in—when you can take advantage of today's prices? And enjoy a car so excitingly new?

Just look at Buick's new styling. "Mas-sive" and "grace" are words that seem almost contradictory. But they're beautifully combined in these newest Buicks. And in a classic way that will still look fresh for years to come.

Just try the newest Buick ride. It's the steadiest yet. Based on deep-coil springs, deep-oil-cushioned shock absorbers, torque-tube drive, and a long list of new developments not even Buick has ever had before.

To get a softer, more buoyant ride than this, you'd have to repeal the laws of gravity.

And to say that this is a great time to buy a Buick is really an understatement. Come see the sensible, down-to-earth prices of Buick's tremendous range of models. Come hear the deal we can give you.

It's our deal—for your pleasure. Come draw up a chair—we're ready whenever you are.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Americans Respect Speed; You 'Slow Down and Live'

The Texas Safety Association has found that the Americans have a high regard for speed. The fact that Americans make things faster and distribute them faster than other nations has a great deal to do with our economic growth. In sports we like fast moving games. For most of us life is geared to a pretty swift tempo.

But there's a place for everything, including safety. And the staggering toll of traffic deaths and injuries plus the fact that speed is involved in the majority of them makes it plain that speed has a place on the highway.

It's rather interesting to note that safety authorities don't limit the speed menace just to exceeding the speed limit. They list failure to yield the right of way, passing without caution, driving too fast for road conditions and driving too close to the vehicle ahead as symptomatic of the "hurry complex" which causes accidents.

That "hurry complex" is the target of the "Slow Down and Live" campaign on the highways of the state this summer.

The sponsoring National Conference of State Highway Coordinators believes that if that message can be implanted in the minds of drivers everywhere it will effect a reduction in the traffic toll.

Sixteen of the states participating in a similar campaign last year did record reductions in traffic deaths on the highway.

Of course, it always is difficult to trace the exact reason why an accident didn't happen.

But certainly the continually growing menace of highway death and injury toll to every highway warrants the cooperation and support of everyone in this national effort to have all of us keep speed in proper place and accept "Slow Down and Live" as slogan for the highway.

This Week Shower Given Davidson

By Clinton Davidson

Around the Department Agriculture these days are more than just long, and quite a change. Officials are certain their popularity rating among farmers is going to be no attention to that cynic over our shoulder and "Where else could it go?" probably is a Democrat, any-the first time in four years the optimists around the Department are not afraid to look at statistics prepared for them by their economists. They quote facts and figures.

Prices now average about 10 per cent higher than when Claus last passed up millions of farmers. For the first time since 1952, prices received for farm products are higher than they were a year earlier.

Income, the kind you can put in your pockets, isn't much better about yet, but it is higher than it was a year ago. Prices for both crops and livestock have been going up for six months in a row.

Secretary of Agriculture D. Morse became so enthusiastic over the statistics that he gave a speech saying "The decline in farm prices and the inflation has not only been stopped, it has definitely turned up. Most difficult part of the adjustment for agriculture appears to be behind us."

With the economists who read the figures, and you are more cautious optimism. You understand, they are running for re-election. They know we have passed the bottom of the farm recession, but it is over.

Exports of farm commodities have been increasing a little recently, and that probably will be as long as we put up the tariff for foreign buyers to use in the United States for what we are selling.

Growers who were squeezed last fall and winter breathe a little easier now. Prices got too low, they did not raise so many hogs a year. They cut down on the crop last spring by eight per cent and plan to do the same on all crops.

If you want to give the culture Department credit for reducing hog production we're that will be all right with Henry Benson. The idea is original with him, but he suggests it last winter.

All Agriculture Department statistics, however, are on the optimistic side of the ledger. Operating costs have been rising, also. The index of prices paid by farmers increased 10 per cent from January to March.

Cost-price squeeze that has farmers deeper into debt than ever before has, however, not eased somewhat. Latest statistics show the average farm commodities at eighty per cent of parity, up from 75 per cent at the start of the year.

Debt changes usually are a pretty good barometer of how farmers are doing, and the trend of borrowing still is adding to an already record total. Last year, farmers borrowed $2.4 billion, the largest amount for any year since 1922. Close to a million farmers still don't have enough income to meet expenses.

PRAYER FOR RAIN

O GOD, heavenly Father, who by thy Son Jesus Christ has promised to all those who seek thy Kingdom, and the righteousness thereof, all things necessary to their bodily sustenance; Send us, we beseech thee, we pray thee, in this necessity, such moderate rain and showers, that we may receive the fruits of the earth to our comfort, and thy Honour; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen. Amen.

PRAYER IN TIME OF DEARTH AND FAMINE

O GOD, heavenly Father, whose gift it is that the rain doth fall, and the earth bring forth her increase; BEHOLD, we beseech thee, the afflictions of thy people; increase the fruits of the earth by thy heavenly benediction; and grant that the scarcity and dearth, which we now most justly suffer for our sins, may, through thy goodness, be mercifully turned into plenty; for the love of Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, now and for ever. Amen. So mote it be. Amen.

O GOD, merciful and compassionate, who art ever ready to hear the prayers of those who put their trust in thee; Graciously hearken to us who call upon thee, and grant us thy help in this our need, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Amen.

PRAYER FOR FRUITFUL SEASONS

ALMIGHTY GOD, who has blessed the earth that it should be fruitful and bring forth whatsoever needful for the life of man, and hast commanded us to work with quietness, and eat our own bread; Bless the labours of the husbandman, and grant such seasonable weather that we may gather in the fruits of the earth, and ever rejoice in thy goodness, to the praise of thy Holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our prayers be with thee! Arthur H. Jungman and J. Frank Jungman.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By Dr. John H. Jennings

East Over West

The Highway 90 All-Star game was unreeled in Hondo last Friday night — and the East edged out an 8 to 7 win. The East jumped off to a big lead — and Blanton Taylor's two run homer in the ninth for the West came just one run shy of tying up the contest. —Big Blanton pitched the last hit but possibly the last man to get a clear view of the ball for Corkey was uncorking his fast ball after that and hitters were most reluctant to stay hitched at the plate. Taylor can throw a very fast ball when he is in the mood.

Senior League Play

The Senior and Junior League is still getting lots of play. We understand a very fine ball game was played last Monday — an extra inning affair in which the Phillies won three to one over the White Sox. Butch Smith was the winning pitcher — and he looked real sharp as he chalked up 14 strikeouts.

Becerra, the Phillies leftfielder, made one beautiful game saving catch that gave the Phillies a chance to win it. — Both shortstops came up with some good plays too — Richard Schweers for the Phillies and Tschirhart for the White Sox. Then, something you do not expect to find in this type of ball, was a number of double plays that were completed. It's good to hear the boys are doing so well with their baseball.

The Junior League is doing fine too — Thursday will find the only undefeated team — Manager Dick Notters Cardinals — go into action. The rest of the teams are anxious to knock off the Cardinals to equalize the standings.

The worst thing about the Junior League is the dust that makes both playing and watching most uncomfortable. Maybe next year, water will be available to wet the diamond down a bit.

Local Golf Sweetstakes

Local golfers will have some competitive fun Sunday as a Sweepstakes Tournament will be run off. Golfers will be put on teams according to their handicaps — and the teams will play for the most number of points. For instance, a par counts two points, a birdie is three and a boggie one point. An added feature will be the Air Force personnel versus an equal number of civilian golfers — it should provide a very interesting afternoon of golfing.

The course continues to improve under the guiding care of Pro Joe Mitchell. In spite of a water problem, the fairways are in fairly good shape and the greens are fine. The recently acquired pipe for watering all the fairways still has not been installed — all the fittings have not arrived — as soon as they do the work will begin.

Junior Golf Tournament

A lot of young golfers have taken to the HAB course — and a better game for them is hard to find — so in view of the interest these young golfers have shown, a tournament will be held Sunday, July 29.

We are interested in all sports — and though golf is new to us, you just cannot help but be impressed with the value of the game. I had an out of state former football coach and college footballer tell me that if he had it to do all over again he would put his time in golf — that it was a game useful to you so much longer etc. — a point all will agree on — but still who could trade all the wonderful experiences, contacts and challenges of a football career.

Braves-Rio Showdown

A most important showdown game between Hondo and Rio will be played Sunday at Rio Medina. The Braves need a win to tie Rio for the fourth place playoff spot — and Rio needs the win to insure its position. It should be an interesting game to watch.

Devine Plans Tournament For August

The Devine Softball tournament will be held Aug. 11, in Devine. A double elimination tournament is planned with eight teams participating.

The program will start on Saturday, then skip Sunday and start again on Monday and run through July 18. Teams which now plan to enter include LaVernia, Hondo Air Base, St. Cecilia (SA), Devine Millers, Alice and Austin.

Sponsored by the Devine Mill, the tournament should see some good, fast action. Alice won the state championship in 1955 and was runner-up in 1956. They lost a 17-inning game to Neal Conoco of San Antonio by a 3-2 margin. There will be no cash prizes, no entrance fee and no guarantee. A trophy for first and second place and outstanding player in the tournament, excluding pitchers, will be given. The outstanding player will be determined by fielding ability, batting average and sportsmanship.

A 10-man all tournament team will be selected and given individual awards. It is hoped the tournament will become an annual affair.

Some of the best pitchers in the state, including Lefty Craig, Austin, Ross Vick, Austin, and Johnny Marsden, San Antonio, will be at the games.

HONDO'S HURRICANES LOSE TWO

Hondo's Hurricanes lost two close decisions to St. Cecilia's and Little Flower of San Antonio last week, during the Devine Invitational Tournament.

In their first game, the Hurricanes were edged out by St. Cecilia's 5-3, in a hard fought decision. Starting out strong, the Hurricanes scored three runs in the bottom of the first inning on one hit by Irene Braden, with two runners on base. An error allowed all three runs across the plate.

St. Cecilia's fought their way back in the third by scoring two runs, one of which was a homer. They then scored three more runs in the fifth inning, with the help of a second homer.

Hondo threatened several times in remaining innings but failed to get the proper steam and did not score again.

During the second round of play, the Hurricanes were eliminated from the tournament by a hard-fought 12-11 decision at the hands of Little Flower.

Again taking an early lead, Hondo scored in the top half of the first inning. After that, Little Flower took the lead but Hondo hopes were not lost as the lead kept weaving from team to team.

Carolyn Rhea, in the top of the seventh, blasted a homer with two on to net the score at 11 all. Unable to score in the top of the eighth inning, Hondo was overpowered in the bottom of that inning for one run and the ball game.

Although Hondo did not win in the tournament, Irene Braden was chosen for the All-Star Team. She was chosen for the center field slot and was presented a gold softball in memory of the honor.

Hondo will again meet Little Flower in the first round of play at the LaVernia Tournament, which is being held at LaVernia July 23-27.
